Hey Marianne,

I hope you had a nice weekend and were able to enjoy the unseasonably warm weather!

Here are photos from JCR for the next piece of equipment planned for mobilization within WMNF.
Let me know if you have any questions.

Hey Marianne,

We're looking at mid-March for the site visit to structure 78 currently due to some struggles with seasonal road postings. I'll connect with Jasmin once she's back and we have a firmer date forecasted.

Thanks,
Ashley

Thanks for the update. Looks good. Jasmin also mentioned a site visit in late February to Structure 78 (to monitor the Canada mountain rice grass area) – are you at a point that we can pick some dates so I can get it on our folks calendars? If not just keep in mind the more lead time the better for us to gather everyone (You probably already know this). Thanks. -M.
