Hey Ridge,

That's a bummer. I submitted an IT ticket on our end too to hopefully resolve the issue. We can touch base next week. Tom may have another work around but he's out today as well.

I hope you have a nice weekend and enjoy your semi-retirement It's a beautiful day!

Thanks,
Ashley

Hi Ashley,

Unable to access the link you provided. Attached screenshot shows message received.

We'll get this figured out at some point (perhaps I can engage our IT people on Monday). I can check back sporadically but I'm not in the office today and taking most of the day to enjoy semi-retirement.

Regards,
Ridge

Hi Tom,

I haven't encountered this issue before, and it may be due to "operator incompetence", but in order to download the file I am being prompted to download Microsoft Authenticator to my phone. I don't have a State issued mobile phone and I don't see other options.

I'll ask our IT people for some guidance, or perhaps you can share the file in another manner?

Regards,
Ridge
